9001 FABRIC

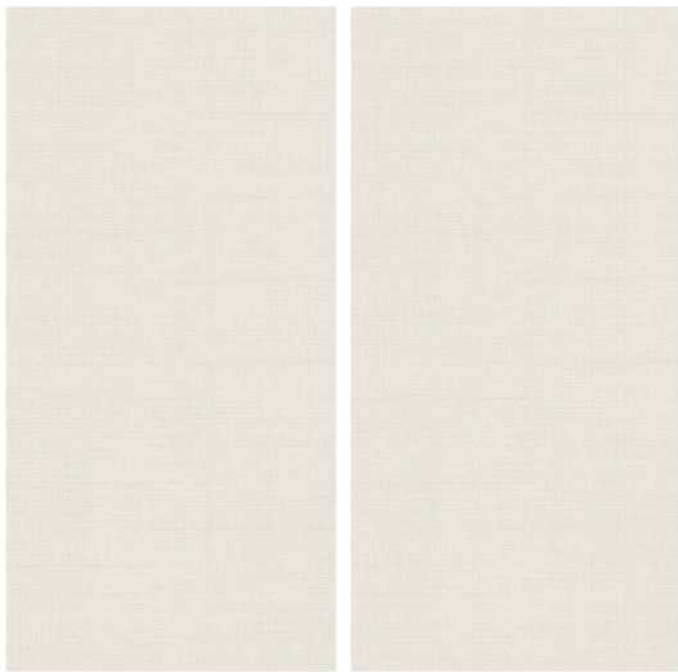

600 x 1200 mm

The 9001 Fabric Series blends the soft elegance of woven textures with the tranquil beauty of nature. Inspired by the gentle tactility of linen and the serenity of botanical prints, this series transforms spaces into soothing retreats.

The Crema and Verde tiles exude quiet sophistication with their muted fabric-like finish, subtle yet warm under the light. The highlight, however, lies in the Tropical A and B variations, where lush green leaves and delicate orange blossoms sprawl across the surface like hand-painted murals. Ideal for bathroom sanctuaries or statement walls, this series turns every tile into a canvas of calm, nature, and textural grace.

800 x 1800 mm

These tiles feature a beautifully muted design with a soft, earthy palette. The background has a warm, textured finish, resembling natural stone. In the Décor variants, delicate leaf patterns overlay the surface, adding a touch of elegance and organic appeal. The intricate details of the leaves give the tile a botanical feel, making it perfect for creating a serene ambiance in spaces like bathrooms, kitchens, or living areas.

Overall, the 1001 & 1002 tiles combine natural beauty with sophistication, ideal for both modern and rustic designs.

5014-5016

300 x 600 mm

5014-5016 is where tropical flair meets artistic luxury. Each tile bursts with layered foliage and fluid brushstrokes, enhanced by delicate metallic accents that shimmer subtly across the surface. The palettes are expressive — from sunlit beiges and charcoal botanicals to rainforest greens and jungle birds — designed to feel both wild and curated.

With every glance, these tiles reveal new details: a hidden bloom, a golden vein, a bird in flight. The 5014-5016 series transforms walls into immersive experiences — lush, luminous, and alive.

Wooden

Rooted in nature, refined by design.

The Wooden Collection brings the warmth and soul of timber into contemporary living. Each series in this collection pays homage to wood's timeless charm, capturing its grains, grooves, and subtle imperfections with remarkable realism.

6001-6004
STP Series

6001 – 6004

600 x 600 mm

The 6001-6004 Series offers a stunning collection of four wooden tiles, each with a distinct colour and grain that add depth and dimensions to the rustic patterns. These tiles are used in flooring or wall decoration to enhance the space, giving a rich, natural and artisanal look. The style takes inspiration from parquet flooring that was originated in France in the 17th century, popularly used in grand homes and palaces.

Texture

Designed to be felt.

The Texture Collection goes beyond the visual — it's a celebration of surface, depth, and materiality. Each tile in this series is defined by subtle grooves, linear reliefs, or handcrafted finishes that invite touch and interaction.

8011-8012

8021-8022

8001 & 8002

600 x 1200 mm

The 8001-8002 Series is where modern restraint meets quiet detail. With soft, natural tones inspired by raw stone and earth, these tiles offer a calm, monochromatic foundation that brings focus to space without overwhelming it. The plain surfaces whisper elegance, while the decor variants add a layer of tactile interest through subtle ridged patterns that catch light and shadow beautifully.

Perfect for contemporary homes and serene commercial interiors, this series turns minimalism into a warm, immersive experience — simple, sophisticated, and undeniably timeless.

The 8021-8022 Series is a dramatic take on natural stone, where every surface feels like a raw, expressive canvas. 8021 features striking marble-like veining in monochrome tones, creating bold, graphic movement that turns walls into statements. In contrast, 8022 leans into dark, moody textures with cloud-like formations and earthy depth — perfect for grounding a space with quiet intensity.

Together, the series balances light and shadow, softness and strength, capturing the untamed beauty of stone in its most artistic form.

Terrazzo

Scattered fragments. Seamless design.

The Terrazzo Collection revives a classic with modern intent — reinterpreting the age-old charm of embedded stone chips into sleek, contemporary surfaces. Each tile features flecks suspended in a smooth base, offering movement, texture, and visual intrigue in one cohesive form.

12001

1200 x 1200 mm

The 12001 Series revives the charm of mid-century patterns through a refined, architectural lens. With soft grey undertones and rhythmic blocky mosaics punctuated by warm rust accents, this design feels both nostalgic and modern. Its textured layout brings a sense of structure and energy to open spaces — ideal for lobbies, galleries, or creative workspaces that thrive on understated personality.

It's retro, but not dated. Statement-making, yet subtle. A tile that speaks in structure, tone, and timeless charm.

Step into a world of iridescent wonder with the DR & SW Series, a modern take on artisan-style tiles. Featuring a mix of glossy whites and metallic finishes, this series blends two formats: the classic square (DR) and the elongated subway (SW).

DR-101 offers a pure white canvas that pairs effortlessly with the stunning DR-102 metallics, which shimmer in pearlescent hues ranging from lilac to seafoam. The SW counterparts mirror this glow in a sleeker profile, making them perfect for eclectic bathrooms, café-style kitchens, or feature walls that crave a handcrafted, luminous vibe. Every tile feels like a brushstroke of modern art.
